

How to decarbonise road transport in Europe: Launch of European academy policy report

House of Academies, Laupenstrasse 7, Bern, Switzerland
5 April 2019, 10h00 – 11h30

Programme

- 10h00 Welcome
Roger Pfister, Head of International Cooperation, on behalf of Antonio Loprieno, President of the Swiss Academies of Arts and Sciences
- 10h05 Introduction to the European Academies Science Advisory Council EASAC
Thierry Courvoisier, President of EASAC
- 10h15 Presentation of EASAC report
Konstantinos Boulouchos, Chair of the EASAC Working Group 'Decarbonisation of transport' and of the Energy Commission of the Swiss Academies of Arts and Sciences, Professor in Energy Technology at ETH Zurich and Director of the Swiss Competence Center for Energy Research 'Efficient Mobility'
- 10h30 Implications of the report for Switzerland: Panel discussion
- Konstantinos Boulouchos
 - François Launaz, President of the Association of Automobile Importers auto-suisse
 - Roger Nordmann, President of the National Council's Committee for the Environment, Spatial Planning and Energy UREK/ESPEC
 - Benoît Revaz, Director of the Federal Office of Energy and BFE/SFOE
- 11h10 Questions from and discussion with the audience
- 11h30 Close of event, followed by stand-up lunch

Moderator: William B. Gillett, Director of the EASAC Energy Programme

Contact

Roger Pfister, Head of International Cooperation, Swiss Academies of Arts and Sciences
+41 31 306 93 06, roger.pfister@swiss-academies.ch